

Fiction ages 7-11

What is this book about?

This book is called Gangsta Granny. It is about a boy that has to go to his boring granny's house every Friday night while his parents go dancing. Ben always gets really bored at his Granny's house because all she wants to do is sit and play Scrabble and eat cabbage soup.

But then one night Ben opened a biscuit tin and found some diamonds. So a few days later Ben followed his Granny and saw her trying to steal some jewellery. Luckily

Ben saw her and stopped her. Ben had a plan to steal the Royal Crown Jewels. So one night he snuck out to his Granny's to show her the plan while his Mum and Dad were watching Strictly Come Dancing. When he came back his Mum saw him and asked why he was so hot. Ben hates dancing! Ben made up this lie and said that he was dancing. His parents made him go to a dance class.

Will he steel the crown jewels or will he not?

I would recommend this book to anyone who likes comedy and adventure.

Reviewed by Georgia