What is this book about!

7-11 fiction 5 STARS!

Camp half-blood is a place where all the half-bloods (demigods) go to train and be safe from all the gargantuan monsters that lurk around every corner. Percy Jackson is a boy who attends Yancy Academy, a private boarding school and his home is in upstate New York. He's been kicked out of his last school after aiming and firing a cannon ball at the school bus and blowing it up! He's just seen his mum be squeezed into thin air and has to now go on an adventure to retrieve Zeus's lightning bolt and save the world from a war of the gods. Percy, Grover (a goat man) and Annabeth go from New York to Hollywood where HELL is because of cause fame and money is the root of all evil! They make a deal with the devil to save his mum and go to Olympus which is on top of the Empire State building on floor 600 where all the Olympians are having a big old fight over the lost lightning bolt!
